

If All Housekeepers Knew the Advantages of the Crawford Ranges few others would be sold

In the saving of time, trouble and labor and in superior cooking ability, no other range can compare with them.

The Single Damper (patented) is the only perfect fire and oven control; one motion—slide the knob to "kindle," "bake" or "check," and the range does the rest.

The Two Hods in the base (patented) is a wonderful trouble-saving feature. One Hod for ashes, instead of the old, clumsy ash pan; the other Hod for coal.

The Oven with its cup-joint flues is heated all over alike; no "cold corners," no "scorching spots".

The Patented Grates save trouble and money.

Auxiliary Gas Ranges at the end of above the range, if desired.

Ask the Crawford agent to show you and write us for circulars.

Burt Newcity of Stowe was committed to jail last night to serve out the sentence imposed on him some time ago of not less than four months and not more than five months for furnishing liquor. This sentence had been suspended and Newcity was on probation, but trouble with a man in Stowe a few days ago led to his commitment. The probation would have ended next June. ## WAITSFIELD.

Funeral of Mrs. Elmer O. Trask Held Monday.

Mrs. Elmer O. Trask died at her home in Weymouth, Mass., Feb. 22. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Wallis and was born in this town Feb. 27, 1857. In 1877 she was married to Mr. Trask and resided here for several years, but later removed to Weymouth, Mass., where their home has been ever since. To them were born two children, Dr. Harry Trask of Boylston, Mass., and Perley E. of Weymouth, Mass. The remains were brought to this town for interment and funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Trask's brother, G. W. Wallis, yesterday. Rev. W. A. Remond, assisted by Rev. E. S. Fisk of Montpelier, was the officiating clergyman. T. J. Ferris of Moretown had charge, and the bearers were F. F. Wilder, Levi Leaver, C. J. Greene and P. B. Gaylord. The great profusion of flowers from friends in Massachusetts and Vermont attested to the high esteem in which Mrs. Trask was held, and included pillars from the fire department, Rebekahs and N. E. O. P. lodges of Worcester and beautiful wreaths and designs from many other friends. Mrs. Trask will long be remembered in this town as a bright and amiable girl, whose help was always sought and freely given to all social and religious work which would help others. Among those from out of town who attended the funeral, besides the husband, were Dr. and Mrs. Trask of Boylston, Mass., Perley Trask and Miss Lorett, Sullivan of Worcester, Mass., Mrs. G. R. Miller of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Brown and Rev. E. S. Fisk of Montpelier, Messrs. George and Will Trask of Warren.

McAllister had charge and the bearers were Levi Royce, George Cota, E. S. Joslin and A. W. Bigelow. A large number of citizens attended to pay their respects to a worthy citizen, who had spent his life among them. Mr. Joslin leaves four sons and two daughters, Clayton of Holiston, Mass., John C. of Wakefield, Mass., David C. and Walter C. and Blanche of this town, and Mrs. Charles Johnson of Newport, N. H.

Gentlemen's night at the Congregational church vestry was quite well attended, and all had a fine time. The first on the program was music by the orchestra, followed by a piano duet by Misses Skinner and Nelli; recitations, Miss Bessie Hayward and Mrs. Will Niles of Alaska. The exciting and funny part was the spelling match, the result of which was a surprise and pleasure to all, as Miss Lydia A. Bisbee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Bisbee, a miss of twelve, spelled them all down, amid the applause of the company. It was amusing to see the crack spellers come down. Some fell over a "bureau"; some couldn't stand under a "knapsack"; and quite a few fell over a bed of "fuschias". Some tripped over a "knoll"; others fell right in the "aisle" of a church and one was in "Cileia," when it would have been better to be at home mending the "sleek" back of a vest. Everybody was in good humor when supper was ready, and no one found fault with the clam chowder. The entertainment was a successful affair—to Miss Bisbee.
